Take Root! is geared for educators, non-profits and community organizations interested in garden-based learning program development or expansion

Take Root! objectives:

- Promote garden-based skills, composting , development and nature awareness
- Bring CCE and educators, staff members and volunteers together to incorporate gardens into their scope of work, to make gardens projects successful and sustainable and to facilitate more educators on these topics
- Gather information about local projects to demonstrate effectiveness and ways of improvement
- Foster community partnerships, coalition building, and linkages to other programs
