Saratoga Bridges announces The Adirondack Trust Company as a Lead Sponsor

Saratoga Bridges is most excited to announce The Adirondack Trust Company as a Lead Sponsor for their 2015 fundraising season. For more than two decades, The Adirondack Trust Company has supported Saratoga Bridges and their programs. As needs continue to increase for people with developmental disabilities and families, the agency must obtain vital funds. Saratoga Bridges is committed to keeping its crucial services intact for individuals and their families living in Saratoga County.

Valerie Muratori, Saratoga Bridges Executive Director, expresses the entire agency's appreciation, "On behalf of over 830 individuals and their families we serve, I am extremely grateful to the tremendous support The Adirondack Trust Company displays towards our agency. As deeply committed community partners, they continue to demonstrate their charitable support by not only donating financial resources, but by encouraging their employees, colleagues, family and friends to volunteer for non-profit organizations like Saratoga Bridges. We have been most privileged to receive both! Private corporate donations are crucial for us in that they allow us to provide vital services such as daily transportation to and from homes to program sites, art materials and supplies for our Creative Endeavors program, family reimbursement and respite and a variety of day program initiatives."

Stephan von Scheck, President, and Charles V. Wait, Jr. Executive Vice President of The Adirondack Trust Company stated,

"By supporting Saratoga Bridges we know that we are contributing to sustaining and expanding the excellent programs they provide to their individuals and the fine work performed by their dedicated and professional staff. Knowing that we have an organization right here in Saratoga County that provides the breadth of services they do including residential homes, day programs, employment opportunities, recreational and social activities benefits our entire community and makes us proud to be their partner."
